

The Historiographer

of the Episcopal Diocese of Connecticut
No. 11

Feb., 1955

Published quarterly by the Archivist and Historiographer of the Diocese, P. O. Box 1080, Hartford 1, Connecticut. Subscription rate, $2.00 a year. Back issues, 50¢

IN THIS ISSUE, we list a few of our hundreds of unedited manuscripts--especially those that concern the consolidation of the Anglican Tradition in America at the time of the Revolution and the founding of the Republic. We have here selected the hitherto uninventoried "Abraham Jarvis Manuscripts," a portion of which came to the Diocese of Connecticut at the time the late Rev. Dr. Howard Chandler Robbins (of the General Theological Seminary, New York) secured a large number for his private collection. Some of Dr. Robbins' holdings have already been edited in the early volumes of the Historical Magazine of the Protestant Episcopal Church, but those in our custody have never been critically examined. The present list, arranged in chronological order, includes our "Malbone-Fogg Correspondence" and a few related papers. In a forthcoming issue of The Historiographer, we shall supply our readers with an inventory of the important "Samuel Farmar Jarvis Manuscripts," which reveal interesting details of Church life at home and abroad during the early years of the Oxford Movement. In itemizing some of our papers, we hope to attract serious scholars to the important work of editing sections of them. Photostats can be supplied to distant researchers at reasonable rates. Those who can come to Hartford will be cordially welcomed at the Archives of the Diocese, now housed in the new fireproof Trinity College Library.

AARON OLIVER, Post-Rider,
WISHES to inform the Public, that he has extended his Route; and that he now rides thro' the towns of Troy, Pittsford, Hoosick, Maplestown, part of Bennington and Shaftsbury, Petersburg, Stephentown, Greenbush and Schodack.

All commands in his line will be received with thanks, and executed with punctuality.

He returns his sincere thanks to his former customers; and intends, by unabated diligence, to merit a continuance of their favours.

*O'er rugged hills, and vallies wide,
He never yet has fail'd to trudge it;
As steady as the flowing tide,
He bands about the NORTHERN BUDGET.*
